NYBC MONITOR

New York Boycott Colorado is a non-partisan coalition of individuals and organizations working together to overturn Colorado's Amendment 2 through education and direct action. We are working to discourage other states from considering similar measures. We support a total boycott of the State of Colorado and all of its products until this discriminatory amendment is repealed.

THE NEWSLETTER OF NEW YORK! BOYCOTT COLORADO 70A GREENWICH AVENUE P.O. BOX 221 NEW YORK, NY 10011 (212) 239-1451 EXT. NYBC

BOYCOTT COLORADO INC.

BOYCOTT COLORADO (BCI) BEGAN IN DENVER AS A "STEERING committee" of nine people (mostly gay and lesbian) who, on November 19, 1992, analyzed the national and local outrage at Amendment 2 and called for a national boycott of Colorado. BCI was incorporated as a non-profit organization on November 27, 1992. The Board of Directors now consists of 7 volunteers. This "working board" sets direction for the boycott, and works with groups dedicated to BCI's mission. BCI also works closely with local, national and international media to promote the Colorado boycott.

Although New York! Boycott Colorado is an independent group, we owe a great debt to the group Boycott Colorado Inc. based in the "hate state." They provide us with much of our research, handle media watch activities in Colorado, and act as the national clearinghouse for boycott activities. As difficult as our work has been in New York, consider their position: they are a small group of people with a conscience about the national ramifications of Amendment 2 who are under siege from their entire state. We must act now to ensure the future of their vital work.

FLYERS PROMOTING THE KU KLUX KLAN AND A GROUP CALLED S.T.R.A.I.G.H.T. (SOCIETY TO REMOVE ALL IMMORAL GROSS HOMOSEXUAL TRASH) HAVE BEEN APPEARING ON TELEPHONE/LIGHT POLES IN THE EASTERN AND NORTHEASTERN SECTIONS OF COLORADO SPRINGS. THEY ARE JUST ONE EXAMPLE OF THE HATE LITERATURE CURRENTLY PROLIFERATING IN COLORADO.

Encourage your friends to join you in writing Boycott Colorado letters of appreciation. (Since they have few opportunities to raise funds within their state, donations would be immensely helpful.) Where they most urgently need our help is at the March on Washington: getting the word out, staffing tables, selling stickers/T-shirts, etc. If you can help, call NYBC and tell us how to contact you both locally and in D.C.

Now is our chance to show Boycott Colorado directly our appreciation and support. We can help revitalize their personal strength to continue the fight against the religious right, for the moral right. ▼

▼ STOP THE HATE ▼

"No gays allowed." This was the message that 53 percent of Colorado voters sent on November 4 when they passed Amendment 2 — an amendment to Colorado's state constitution that bans equal rights for lesbian, gay men and bisexuals. If Amendment 2 becomes law — a state judge delayed enforcement on January 15 — gay men, lesbians and bisexuals can be fired from their jobs, evicted from their homes, denied medical and dental care and even refused service in restaurants and hotels solely on the basis of their sexual orientation. They will have no legal recourse. No court will be allowed to hear their case, no state agency will be able to assist them.

Bolstered by Amendment 2's success in Colorado, the right wing is working hard to place similar measures on the ballots in another 12 states, and perhaps as many as 20 states, in coming elections. The national gay, lesbian and bisexual community must fight Amendment 2 and these other ballot initiatives now. We must send a message to the bigots who are championing this new anti-gay apartheid. We must tell them that there is a cost to enacting these measures. We must boycott Colorado now.

Do not travel to Colorado. Do not buy products that are made in Colorado. Demand that your local government and businesses ban travel to Colorado and move meetings and conventions that will be held there. Ask your friends and family to take these actions.

According to Denver's mayor, the boycott has already cost the Denver area $110 million in lost revenues and business. We must raise the price tag of enacting anti-gay laws even higher, and stop the right wing nationwide. ▼

NYBC COMMITTEE REPORTS

NYBC 's structure of committees and working groups enables all members to participate actively. Media, Action, Research, and Outreach & Education Committees determine policy and the most effective ways of achieving our ultimate goal. As tasks arise that are not easily assigned to an existing committee, working groups form. At Wednesday meetings an agenda is presented with new business. Each working group leader is given time to report on his or her activities and needs. Current working groups are Restaurant, Food & Wine, Neoplan Buses, and Conventions. At planning meetings held the first Monday of every month, we review our previous progress and develop strategies for the future. Planning meetings are open to all members; however, we do ask that voting be limited to members who have attended three weekly meetings.

NYBC MEETS WEDNESDAYS 6:00 P.M. - 7:30 P.M.
AT THE LESBIAN & GAY COMMUNITY SERVICES CENTER
208 WEST 13TH STREET (BETWEEN SEVENTH & EIGHTH AVENUES)

FOOD & WINE

FOOD & WINE MAGAZINE AND AMERICAN Express Publishing Corporation intend to host their eighth annual Food & Wine Classic in Aspen this June. Celebrity chefs from around the world will swap recipes in seminars such as 'Barbecue and You' while dumping thousands of dollars into the hate state's coffers. Since February NYBC's Food & Wine 'Commandos', as New York City gossip columnists affectionately refer to them, have been trying to persuade participants to pull out of the event.

The group's first action took place at the offices of Food & Wine. Chanting slogans and tossing leaflets, boycotters worked their way to the office of Editor-in-Chief Mary Simons. Simons dismissed NYBC with the standard corporate response: American Express does not support boycotts. In fact, her company did major business with South Africa throughout the 70's and 80's.

NYBC had better luck with Union Square Cafe owner and seminar participant Danny Meyer. At first Meyer contended that simply a proactive stance against Amendment 2 would be more effective than a boycott. He offered to hold an Undo-2 fundraiser in Aspen. When confronted again with arguments why his presence in Colorado would be a tacit endorsement of bigotry, Meyer said that he was proud to participate in the Aspen Classic.

Two days later NYBC members, with the support of Councilman Tom Duane, were in front the Union Square Cafe cajoling customers to stay away. Writer Susan Sontag was just one of the patrons who did not cross the picket line and lunched elsewhere. Local columnists reported on the event. Before another action was necessary, Meyer withdrew from the Classic saying, "I now believe that sitting it out is the right choice for me and for the sake of Union Square Cafe."

Shortly after Meyer canceled, Barbara Tropp, owner of China Moon Cafe in San Francisco and a scheduled speaker for two seminars, called NYBC to say she was pulling out of the Classic as well.

New York Times wines critic Frank Prial was announced as a seminar speaker in three consecutive issues of Food & Wine. Numerous attempts to discuss the boycott issue with him met with no response. Three NYBC members then stood outside the Times building and distributed leaflets to his colleagues which chastised him for doing business in a state that his own newspaper said should be avoided. After this action, Prial insisted that he never actually said he would go to Aspen. Now, apparently, he won't.

Wines of Spain not only recognized the importance of the boycott and withdrew sponsorship of the Classic, their marketing director attended NYBC's fund-raiser and made a donation.

Energized by their success in persuading select New York–based participants of the Food & Wine Classic to join the boycott, the Food & Wine Working Group will begin a nation-wide campaign. For all the latest information about letter writing, telephoning and faxing, and other actions contact NYBC. ▼

NEOPLAN BUSES

FOR THE PAST SEVEN MONTHS THE New York City Transit Authority has been leasing an articulated bus from the Neoplan Company in Lamar, Colorado, which is located in a county that passed Amendment 2 by a majority of 73%. If the test use of the model is successful, the TA will buy a fleet of buses from Neoplan at a cost of $280,000 each.

The NYBC Neoplan Bus Working Group is lobbying the TA not to renew the lease for the bus and not to enter into any purchase agreement with Neoplan. Actions include a petition drive to educate TA riders on the issue and enlist their support. Once the group has 1,000 signatures NYBC will present them to the Board of the TA.

The working group will also try to meet with Deputy Mayor and TA Board

Member Barbara Fife to determine her position on the issue and explore alternatives to business with a Colorado company. Call NYBC if you would like to put your name on a petition or assist the Working Group in any way. ▼

EDUCATION & OUTREACH

THE FIRST TASK OF THE EDUCATION and Outreach Committee of New York Boycott Colorado was to create materials which could be used to define the objectives of our organization. The focus of our work is to build consensus around the propriety of the boycott of Colorado in all communities concerned with the protection of human rights.

We developed a brochure to answer some of the most common questions posed regarding our boycott efforts. The brochure was widely distributed throughout the New York gay and lesbian community and disseminated to over 1500 groups and organizations nationwide.

Other outreach activities include the creation of New York Boycott Colorado stickers, which will be sold to increase awareness and raise much-needed funds.

If you are a member of an organization, please think of including our brochure in your next mailing or distributing it at your next meeting. ▼

RESTAURANTS

MANY NEW YORKERS DO NOT REALize that there are Colorado products they can boycott. Every purchase of Monfort Meats, Coors Beer, Celestial Seasonings Tea, Holly Sugar, and Jolly Ranchers candies contributes to the taxes and economy that support Amendment 2. NYBC's Restaurant Working Group is educating New York restaurants about the boycott and asking them to agree not to serve Colorado products until Amendment 2 is overturned.

If the restaurants you frequent haven't joined the boycott yet, ask them to consider joining our list! For information, call the NYBC hotline. ▼

FUNDRAISING

MORE THAN 100 FINANCIAL SUPPORTERS gathered at Universal Harmony restaurant to support the Colorado Boycott movement. Among the speakers who addressed the enthusiastic crowd were NYC comptroller Liz Holtzman and councilman Tom Duane. A portion of the proceeds will go to Colorado to assist in the fight against Amendment 2. NYBC is indebted to the owners of Universal Grill-Universal Harmony, Bruce Barnes, Arnold Fern and Jack Miller whose generosity in donating their restaurant made all this possible.

CONVENTIONS

OUR WORK CONVINCING ORGANIZAtions to cancel upcoming Colorado conventions becomes more urgent every day. As each cancellation can cost the state up to $4 million, the Denver Metro Convention and Visitor's Bureau is releasing a new video attempting to focus the debate on claims of individual "human costs" of the boycott rather than the overriding civil rights issues of Amendment 2. The Convention Working Group needs help now contacting convention organizers in order to rebut the emotional manipulation of the video and convince them to cancel their conventions in Colorado.

Some of our tasks include researching conventions in Colorado and finding good ways to persuade them to cancel, prioritizing target conventions and launching working groups, writing NYBC letters to convention organizers, and creating letter writing campaigns to increase the pressure. If you would like to help with this work, need lists of conventions for writing letters, or would like to head a working group (possibly, but not necessarily, around a convention related to your field) please leave a message on the NYBC hotline. ▼

WASHINGTON MARCH

ROBERT BRAY OF NGTLF HAS HELPED acquire space for a Boycott Colorado National Town Meeting during the March on Washington weekend.

APRIL 24TH, 9-11:30 A.M.
THE WASHINGTON HILTON
1919 CONNECTICUT AVENUE
(NEAR DUPONT CIRCLE/ADAMS MORGAN)

Our goal is to provide a forum for the National Lesbian and Gay Community to discuss the Colorado boycott. Ultimately, we want to organize a National Advisory Council that can facilitate a more comprehensive boycott of Colorado. It is vital to spread the word widely that this town meeting is occurring in D.C.

Boycott Colorado has invited NYBC to join them at their banner for the March. They are also seeking help at their information booth. ▼

JANUARY ACTIONS

TWO ACTIONS IN JANUARY KEPT THE boycott in the news and kept national media figures out of Colorado

SELF Magazine canceled an ad junket in Aspen after Lesbian Avengers and NYBC members demonstrated both inside and outside the magazine's offices.

A CBS affiliate in Grand Junction, Colorado disinvited Connie Chung to speak there after NYBC distributed 10,000 flyers to rush hour subway riders and generated 1,500 telephone calls to CBS in one day. ▼

▼ CELESTIAL SEASONINGS ▼

After Mo Siegel met with NYBC at his request, the Colorado media encouraged the President and CEO of Celestial Seasonings to make false accusations against our group. The media understandably wanted eye-catching copy and a chance to discredit NYBC. Here are the words of attendees and interpreters of that meeting other than Mo and NYBC members:

NEWSDAY COLUMN — 2/17/93

■ I was the only journalist covering the gathering and I saw not the teensiest hint of extortion or even extortionette. NYBC's twentysomething leaders merely suggested that Siegel could help both his state and his company's image among gays by speaking out against Amendment 2 ....

Throwing around terms "extortion" and "blackmail" seems to be s.o.p. in Colorado, where such words are routinely used to discredit the national boycott. Perhaps the media's role in recklessly amplifying the accusations should come as no surprise: Many observers say that Amendment Two was approved because the local press had not carefully explained its implications to voters.

Listen to Mary Mulry, a Celestial Seasonings vice president who accompanied Siegel to the meeting .... "It took on a life of its own," Mulry said. "It's continued because Mo has been prompted by the media. If you read our statement, there was no discussion of that word, 'extortion'."

If Celestial Seasonings isn't saying it, who is?

"The media. It was a sexy thing to say, and then it became THE thing to say. Unfortunately, Mo has used those words, based on prompting from the media. I'm just shocked. I had the reaction, 'Were we at the same meeting?'"

– GABRIEL ROTELLO

DENVER POST COLUMN— 2/21/93

■ Despise the boycott if you must, as a loyal Coloradan who fears for the state's economic well-being. But stop short of genuflecting before the Celestial Being.

The New York meeting was Siegel's idea. Siegel wanted input. Siegel, who has been a multimillion-dollar player in the corporate world long enough to know a thing or two about arm-twisting, stands accused of felony spin-control....

– KEVIN SIMPSON

EXCERPT FROM A BCI LETTER TO MO SIEGEL — 4/3/93

■ BCI has studied the impact of the boycott, and the effects of alleged "extortion" claims made by The Rocky Mountain News, and furthered by you. We concluded five things:

1. FBI investigation found no evidence of "extortion."
2. Your company chose to deny this allegation to some media, but did NOT deny this allegation to others in the media.
3. This sensational "extortion" claim diverted attention away from gay and lesbian civil rights.
4. This serious allegation of "extortion" amounted to a smear campaign that damaged the cause of gay and lesbian civil rights by equating gays and lesbians with criminal behavior.
5. This smear campaign attempted to stop the national boycott of Colorado, and did not succeed.

Your company claims to value gay and lesbian business, but you have damaged the gay and lesbian civil rights movement by your company's failure to stop this smear campaign. You also claim to be "non-political" but your silence on the unfolding "smear campaign" furthered the political agenda of Amendment 2 proponents by discrediting gay and lesbian boycotters.

REACH OUT, BOYCOTTERS

HERE'S A WAY TO CONTRIBUTE FINAN- cially to the the Fight the Right campaign while saving money! Change your long distance service to either Working Assets or Community Spirit. Both use Sprint's fiber-optic network, but are significantly less expensive than AT&T, MCI, or Sprint. Sprint runs no part of its operations out of Colorado; AT&T and MCI are a major presence. In addition, MCI is planning to increase by 600 people its employment base in Colorado Springs (the city which spawned Amendment 2 and voted heavily for it).

1) Working Assets 1-800-788-8558

Standard rates are just under 12 cents per minute night/weekend and 13-15 cents evenings (depending on distance). 1% of charges are put into a fund for progressive charities and you vote on the distribution at year's end. Every month two urgent actions (such as showing support for the lifting of the military ban on gay men and lesbians) are announced in the bill and calls to stipulated politicians and corporations are discounted (1/2 hour free, 20% off the rest of month). Best of all you get a 20% discount on all calls to other members and, if you tell them I referred you (Greg Thornburg 212-929-7714), I will pass the $10 new member credit on to GLAAD, LLDEF, NGLTF, and NYBC for their Fight the Right efforts. If you do the same thing with your friends, these organizations can start building sorely needed war chests!!!

2) Community Spirit 1-800-487-6877

This is the service run by Overlooked Opinions, the gay and lesbian market research firm in Chicago. Rates are 13.9 cents per minute the first non-daytime hour each week, and 9.9 cents per minute thereafter. They will donate 2% of your charges to the gay/lesbian or AIDS charity of your choice (such as BCI). You will have to spend $500 before you reach the up front $10 offered by Working Assets and unless you are a high volume caller who makes all of your calls in the evening to people who won't join Working Assets for the 20% "friends and family" discount, you may spend more.

Please choose the service which best suits your calling habits and send your savings to the charity of your choice. ▼

OLGAD

THE ORGANIZATION OF LESBIAN AND GAY Architects and Designers' executive committee fully supports the Colorado Boycott.

We have been waging the battle on several fronts:

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ARCHITECTS:

OLGAD founder Dan Lansner flew to Miami to lobby the AIA board on its plans to meet in Denver this October. He also convinced several local AIA chapter leaders around the country to write letters in support of the boycott. We received crucial support from the AIA Task Force on Diversity, whose members wrote eloquently of the civil rights implications of Amendment 2. OLGAD members were urged to write letters to AIA President Susan Maxman asking for her support. Despite our best efforts, the AIA board has voted to meet in Denver. Ms. Maxman voted in favor of going to Colorado.While we were all disheartened by this setback, our efforts have caught the attention of the architectural press, and we will continue the fight. This one's not over yet!

THE INTERNATIONAL DESIGN CONFERENCE IN ASPEN:

We met with three board members of IDCA to explain our position. While IDCA will be held as planned, we convinced three key participants to drop out of the event, and will continue to lobby other participants.

ARMSTRONG WORLD INDUSTRIES:

We started a letter writing campaign to protest Armstrong's involvement in the Food and Wine Classic.

SCHUMACHER AND COMPANY:

We started a letter writing campaign to protest the International Furnishings and Design Association's plans for a convention in Colorado. Robert Herring is President of both Schumacher and the IFDA. ▼
